

DX31

Deposited: Michael Roe, Department of History
Date: 15th. September 1995
Contact: Richard Raxworthy, Historian 5/6 Marne Street, Vaucluse NSW 2030
Access: Permission for publication R. Raxworthy and Captain Stanley Darling
C24/16 Hereward Street MAROUBRA 2035

Captain Stanley DARLING

O.B.E. D.S.C. and two bars R.A.N.R.

Interviewed by Richard Raxworthy 21 September 1994

Born 1907 Bellerive, Bachelor of Civil Engineering 1929. University of Tasmania, Engineering Department. ABC broadcaster and established Launceston ABC radio.

Chief ABC Civil Engineer 1932 - 1968. Charles Moses General Manager.

RANR and RAN 1939-1946 Master Maritime and Commander Royal navy submarine hunters. Sank 3 U-Boats of German Navy. Television and radio station designer.

Yachtsman, navigator and tactician in ocean racing including Sydney Hobart.

Member Cruising Yacht Club, Royal Sydney Yacht Squadron, Institute of Navigation, Sydney Maritime Society. Loch Oskalg Inchmarnock Clarkia Loch Killin Loch Lomond Illustrious

- .1 Copy article Anti-submarine warfare by Captain Stanley Darling in Naval Historical Review New Series Vol.2 No.7 March 1980 Pp. 3-13
- .2 Oral history interview consisting of interview of Stanley Darling much material on the early history of ABC radio broadcasting.
Audio cassette 17/8 ips stereo.