Letter from Sir John to Lady Franklin 1 Jan. 1841

Xerox copy of letter in the National Library, Canberra, (ref. ANL MS 114/12) from Sir John Franklin in Hobart to Lady Franklin in South Australia with Governor Gawler:- New Year wishes. The colony quiet and prosperous except for the squabbles of lawyers - refers to cases of Gilbert Robertson v. Thomas McDonald and Abbot, when Mr Anstey was roughly handled by the Attorney General - verdicts farthing in one case and for the defendants in the other. Mr Jones directed to supervise criminal proceedings at quarter sessions but declined so the Executive Council had been summoned. Mr Anstey also 'carrying on a correspondence with the Gov. respecting his office' and so Mr Sorell appointed his successor. Sir John also refers to his proposed visit to Port Arthur, Mr Henslowe to come in mid-January, Parker's lameness, Government House plans not yet drawn, gardener arrived, Archdeacon Jefferies.
