

COOK BICENTENARY.

RS.107

Presented by A.J.White, Agent-General, London, 1970
to commemorate the bi-centenary of Cook's landing.

COOK BICENTENARY GIFT.

1. Captain James Cook, c 1820

Engraving by W.Hall, from the painting by Nathaniel Dance (1776), printed by Fisher, Son & Co., with facsimile of Cook's signature. Printed about 1820.

This print has been mounted and inscribed (on mount) 'To the Trustees, Royal Society of Tasmania, Greetings & Salutations'. This print was carried as a despatch on the Barquentine "Regina Maris" to commemorate the 200th Anniversary of the voyage made by Captain Cook in the "Endeavour" when he discovered the East Coast of Australia in the year 1770. The "Regina Maris" followed the track taken by Captain Cook. [signed] A.J.White, Agent General for Tasmania'.

(Engraved print, mounted)

RS.107/1

2. Newspaper cutting (The Times) on sale of Cook's log book and journal.
29 November 1960

RS.107/2

3. "James Cook, his early life and the Endeavour voyage. An introduction to a bicentenary exhibition arranged by the National Library of Australia".
Canberra 1970. [by Pauline Fanning].

(Pamphlet)

RS.107/3

